

Joshua Rilev (b. 1986) began his musical career at the young age of eight, studying piano under Sarah Capehart at Oakland City University. He has since studied with many respected musicians and professors, including Sandra Botkin, retired Professor of Piano at the University of Evansville, Red Wick of the Red Wick Piano Trio, and Dr. Karen Taylor, Professor of Piano Performance at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. Riley has performed all over the state of Indiana, encountering a wide array of audiences. He has performed on a number of occasions at the Oakland City University Cornwell Reed Fine Arts Center, and recently accompanied the Flanner House Youth Chorale at the Madame Walker Theatre Center in Indianapolis. Riley has received many awards for his performances. including first place in the I.S.S.M.A., I.M.T.A., and K.E.Y. student competitions, and a scholarship for performing at the Schmidt Piano Competition in Evansville.

For Gran.

Sitting together at your piano made a lasting impression on me. I wouldn't be the same if it weren't for you.
